

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who bring glory and honor to themselves and to this great state through the excellence of their creative endeavors in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, JoAnn Boatman of Newtown, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as one of three winners in the first annual House District 2 "Landmarks and Historical Places" photography contest; and

Whereas, JoAnn Boatman's "Gray Skies Are Gonna Clear Up" entry was chosen by a panel of three judges from Adair, Putnam, and Sullivan counties as one of the three winners in the first annual photography event; and

Whereas, the photography of JoAnn Boatman serves to enhance pride in the history and natural beauty of the Newtown community; and

Whereas, in recognition of JoAnn Boatman's "top three" finish, her winning photograph will be appropriately displayed in the state capitol as a suitable representation and reminder of her hometown and its environs; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative activities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of such outstanding Missouri citizens as JoAnn Boatman:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in life by JoAnn Boatman and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon being selected as one of three winners in the first annual House District 2 "Landmarks and Historical Places" photography contest; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to JoAnn Boatman of Newtown, Missouri.
